LINCOLN'S LETTERS

The letters which Abraham Lincoln wrote have been a most valuable source of information about his life. There have been six outstanding compilations of his writings; Nicolay and Hay (N), Tarbell (Ta), Gettysburg (G), Federal Edition (F), Tracy's, Uncollected Letters (Tr), and Angle's, New Letters and Papers (A).

The index to these writings which will follow in this and subsequent issues of Lincoln Lore have been compiled from the above mentioned works, credit being given to the edition where they first appeared.

No attempt has been made to list letters appearing in volumes other than those named or to mention unpublished correspondence of the president. These items will be released in a supplemental list at the close of this series. We solicit the interest of all to assist us in preparing this supplemental index to include all of the Lincoln letters not mentioned in the standard works.
