

LINCOLN LORE

Bulletin of the Lincoln National Life Foundation - - - - - Dr. Louis A. Warren, Editor
Published each week by The Lincoln National Life Insurance Company, Fort Wayne, Indiana

Number 665

FORT WAYNE, INDIANA

January 5, 1942

CLOTH BOUND LINCOLN BOOKS PUBLISHED IN 1941

A New Year's atmosphere might be created for this first 1942 issue of Lincoln Lore by suggesting that already there has been announced for early publication this year, six new Lincoln books which will add much to the ever increasing volume of Lincolniana.

The real purpose for this bulletin, however, is to compile a list of the cloth bound books published during the year 1941 from which the Foundation Advisory Group will select the Lincoln Book of the Year and also name one other title as highly commendable.

Professor R. Gerald McMurtry of the Lincoln Memorial University at Harrogate, Tennessee, has consented to act as one of the tellers and the Director of the Lincoln National Life Foundation will serve as the other teller in recording the ballots cast by the Foundation Advisory Group. Ballots will be issued in duplicate to each member of the group, one to be marked and forwarded to Professor McMurtry and the other copy bearing similar marks to be sent to Dr. Warren. Each teller will record and endorse the ballots received which will then be exchanged with the other teller for final check and totaling. Both tellers are bound to secrecy with respect to any knowledge which they may indirectly receive as to the identity of an individual's vote.

Bailey, Bernadine. Abe Lincoln's Other Mother. Julian Messener, Inc.

A child's life of the stepmother of Abraham Lincoln, Sarah Bush Johnston Lincoln. A story of the woman who influenced Lincoln's life from the age of ten to twenty-one when he was living in Indiana. There are also a few references to the early Illinois years.

Booker, Richard. Abraham Lincoln in Periodical Literature, 1860-1940. Fawley-Brost Company.

A bibliography in which the author has listed 1244 magazine articles relating to the 16th President. The subject matter is arranged chronologically in the following order: Name of magazine, name of author, title of article. An index to the subject matter is also included.

Cowgill, Frank Brooks. Columbia's Martyr and Other Lincoln Tributes. The Lincoln Fellowship of Southern California.

A series of twenty poems relating to Abraham Lincoln. There is also a companion volume entitled Appeal to Posterity and Other Religio-Patriotic Verse by the Poet Laureate of the Lincoln Fellowship of Southern California. In this last mentioned volume there are fifteen poems, and Lincoln is referred to in eight of them.

Hazen, David Wheeler. Mr. Lincoln. Privately Printed.

A group of four lectures by the author delivered at the University of Portland to inaugurate the Easter Series of 1941. The titles of the lectures are: Mr. Lincoln; Lincoln and the Editors; Lincoln and the War Governors; and Lincoln and Old Oregon.

Lake, Harry F. and Farnum, George R. The Great Debate Between Abraham Lincoln and Stephen A. Douglas in 1858. The Lincoln Group of Boston.

A condensed text of the famous debates conducted in the Senatorial Campaign of 1858 between Lincoln and Douglas. Mr. Lake and Mr. Farnum, both members of the Lincoln Group of Boston, re-enacted the debate using the major issues presented by the candidates and quoting from them verbatim so far as possible.

Lang, H. Jack. The Wit and Wisdom of Abraham Lincoln. Greenberg.

A collection of the briefer letters and speeches of Abraham Lincoln compiled for general use. According to the author, many of the quotations are included because they are applicable to present day happenings, and these are supplemented with editorial comment.

Leech, Margaret. Reveille In Washington, 1860-1865. Harper & Brothers.

The story of the city of Washington, D. C. during the time the Lincolns resided in the White House, revealing the hurry and flurry of the war excited Capital during the trying days that Lincoln served as President.

Lorant, Stefan. Lincoln His Life In Photographs. Duell, Sloan and Pearce.

A picture biography of the Emancipator arranged in modern journalistic style. The author illustrates Lincoln's life with photographs using prints of the President, some of his contemporaries, and many of the homes and buildings associated with him.

Meserve, Frederick H. The Photographic Portraits of Abraham Lincoln. Privately Printed.

An edition of fifty-two copies giving a short description of each of the Lincoln photographs in the author's collection were recently presented to Lincoln Memorial University.

Meserve, Frederick Hill. This is Abraham Lincoln. Lincoln Memorial University.

This brochure contains a series of thirty poster stamps, reproduced from original pictures of Abraham Lincoln in the collection of the author. So far as possible, a picture is chosen to represent each of thirty outstanding events in Lincoln's life.

Pratt, Harry E. Lincoln, 1809-1839. The Abraham Lincoln Association.

The fourth volume in the current series of the day by day happenings in the life of Abraham Lincoln which traces his activities from February 12, 1809, the date of his birth, to 1839, when he completed his third term in the legislature of Illinois.

Starr, Thomas I. Lincoln's Kalamazoo Address Against Extending Slavery, Also His Life by Joseph J. Lewis. Paul McPharlin.

The volume contains two little known printed items. One of the originals is in the possession of the Burton Historical Collection, Detroit, and the other in the Greenly Collection, Ann Arbor. The Kalamazoo Lincoln Speech is here published for the first time in book form.

Tilley, John Shipley. Lincoln Takes Command. The University of North Carolina Press.

A lawyer's brief placing the responsibility for the opening of the war between the states, upon the shoulders of Abraham Lincoln. The work is fully documented with the use of many footnotes.

Villard, Henry. Lincoln on the Eve of '61. Alfred A. Knopf.

A New York Herald correspondent's record of the daily activities of Abraham Lincoln between his election as the Sixteenth President of the United States and his inauguration.

Williams, T. Harry. Lincoln and the Radicals. The University of Wisconsin Press.

A documented history of Lincoln and the Civil War in which the author presents the differences of opinion between the President and the radicals of his own party.